OFFICIAL 2010 DERBY RULES

1. All participants who fish in a boat must be derby entrants. Non-fishing "ride-a-longs" are not permitted and violators may be disqualified from prize contention.
2. All California Fish and Game regulations are in effect. Breaking any DFG regulations or Coast Guard Boating rules may result in disqualification. Life jackets must be aboard each boat for each participant and may be checked.
3. No fishing before 6:00 a.m. of the derby day. Pre-fishing prior to the day of the derby IS allowed.
4. Fishing officially stops at 12 NOON and all anglers must be in the weigh-in line by 1 p.m. to have their fish weighed.
5. Only two (2) KOKANEE SALMON OR two (2) TROUT may be entered in derby per entrant. Bring trout or kokanee in provided fish bag to the weigh master. The total length of 2 kokanee OR 2 trout shall determine the winners.
6. In case of ties, a coin flip will determine place of finish.
7. Top ten anglers with the total length of two (2) Kokanee will receive CASH AWARDS. Top five anglers with the total length of two (2) Trout will receive merchandise awards.
8. Entry verification and personal identification may be required at time of weigh-in.
9. Any fish showing signs of tampering or considered questionable by DFG Biologists or CIFFI judges will not be considered worthy of prizes.
10. Derby entrants are not allowed to hire professional guides or charter boat captains. Guides and charter captains are welcome to enter the derby as entrants but they may not guide clients or charge for services.
11. All contestants must adhere to all provisions of the law and abide with the above-mentioned rules of sportsmanship and fair play.
12. YOU MUST HAVE FUN! After all... that's what these derbies are all about.

Keep these rules handy.
